Old Hippie

The Bellamy Brothers

G

He turned thirty-five last Sunday

C G

In his hair he found some gray

But he still ain't changed his lifestyle

C D

He likes it better the old way

So he grows a little garden in the back yard by the fence

C G

He's consuming what he's growing nowadays in self defense

He get's out there in the twilight zone

sometimes when it just don't make no sense

He gets off on country music cause disco left him cold

He's got young friends into new wave but he's just too damn old

And he dreams at night of Woodstock and the day John Lennon died how the music made him happy and the silence made him cry

Yea he thinks of John sometimes and he has to wonder why

== Chorus ==

He's an old hippie

and he don't know what to do

should hang on to the old

should he grab on to the new

he's an old hippie

his new life is just a bust

he ain't trying to change nobody

C D G

he just trying real hard to adjust

He was sure back in the sixties that everyone was hip Then they sent him off to Vietnam on his senior trip

And they force him to become a man while he was still a boy and in each wave of tragedy he waited for the joy Now this world may change around him but he just can't change anymore
== Chorus ==
Well he stays away a lot now from the parties and the clubs And he's thinking while he's joggin' 'round Sure is glad he quit the hard drugs Cause him and his kind get more endangered everyday And pretty soon the species will just up and fade away Like the smoke from that torpedo just up and fade away
