Pledge allegiance to your wars
We never wanted any part of it
Undermining oil whore
Senseless death for government
The streets are red, the skies are black
And still we're fed your lies
Still choking on your lies

How do you use and consume
Human life for profit
Your system fails us again
Tying your noose as you mute
The voices of our children
Force fed the message that you send
(Message that you send)

Billions spent on spilling blood
While families are
Sleeping on the street
Welcome to America
This is the land of opportunity
Blind innocence, their broken dreams
And still we're fed your lies
Still choking on your lies

How do you use and consume
Human life for profit
Your system fails us again
Tying your noose as you mute
The voices of our children
Force fed the message that you send
(message that you send)

We are not amused by
Your mistrust and use
Of human life for your own gain, Fuck

How do you use and consume
Human life for profit
Your system fails us again
Tying your noose as you mute

The voices of our children
Force fed the message that you send
(Message that you send)

How do you use and consume
Human life for profit
Your system fails us again (again)
Tying your noose as you mute
The voices of our children
Force fed the message that you send
(Message that you send)

Message that you send
