So beautiful she is
She brings me to my knees
With the wind in her hair
She's walking on air

She is like a shot
Of darkness in my heart
My blood will stop to flow
My veins are gonna blow

Her touch makes me insane
My life goes down the drain
She makes me lose my mind
She is the night's child

The demon in her eyes
The sharpness of her lies
The poison in her touch
Make me want her so much

[Chorus - 2x]
She's the light of my dreams
As dark as she seems
She is for sure
The light of my soul

She takes me in her breath
She embraces me with death
She lays her arms on me
And I'll die quietly

[Chorus - 2x]

[Chorus - 2x]

[Chorus]
