Walking through the falling snow
Trying to escape the dawn
Drowning in the endless night
Trying to escape the fright

Raise your sword and grab your shield
Keep your ground and face the wind
But it's so hard standing tall
Where even the heroes fall

[Chorus]
I'll hide my scars behind the stars
Shining on the tomb of kings
I lay my head and soul to rest
Buried in the tomb of kings

Now it's time to face the facts
Every life must have it's end
Hold tight your blade and cut through ice
Hold tight your shield and close your eyes

[Chorus]

[Chorus]
