Day and night these struggles they're haunting me
Try to fix them all on my own strength
But know I know the strength that i need is found in
You my King, my King yeah

In you I find the strength that i need
In this life, in this life
In you I find everything I need and you give it all
To display how great you are yeah
(how great you are)

I cannot stop falling in the same trap
Keep satisfying my own flesh
Well know I know the grace I need
Is found in you my King, My king yeah

In you I find the grace that I need
In this life, in this life
In you I find everything I need
And you give it all
To Display how great you are yeah

For you alone are the giver of all good things for you alone have provided all all these things
To show how great you are Lord how great you are
All I know I need I found in you yeah
All I know I need I found in you cause' In you I find everything I need

In this life, In this life
In you I find everything I need
And you give it all
To display how great you are yeah

In you I find everything I need
In this life, In this life
In you I find everything I need
And you give it all
To display how great you are
