

Anathema

"Looking Outside Inside"

Visit "Looking Outside Inside" on MotoLyrics.com

Is this the one who thought it was insane?
Coming down against it all

Didn't want it, didn't need it, didn't want it

Twisted face of fading beauty
Count the cost of suffering
Cannot see the day before you
Only feel what's deep inside
Try to change it makes no difference

Didn't want it, didn't need it, didn't want it
Didn't want it, didn't need it, didn't want it

Let me go, let me go, let me go

Looking outside inside, craving for something
Hoping for anything, I'll believe in anything
Who has eyes that see? Who wants to believe
In something, in anything?
In one thing in freedom

Looking outside inside
Looking outside inside
Looking outside inside

Set assist pandemonium, broken promises
Died alive flying high, you caught me in your eye
Disintegrated incinerated this is not now I want to be Too much is coming through, someone please tell me what to do?

Looking outside inside
Looking outside inside
Looking outside inside
Looking outside inside

Visit Anathema page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.