'On To Morning Stars' - Anatomy Of A Ghost

We flail on to morning stars
We'll offer all of ourselves
Just not to close our eye
Seize onto the sun as it rises in the east
Ascend to open doors hanging heavenly
Suspended in the superlunary
Even broken you'll be back to stay

We'll shatter the silence to tell you we won't, last long
If this canopy crashes down, crushing us
That's the only way to break this apart

And although the moon is falling down on us
Don't expect this day to end
Do you see that star
Well, I'll meet you there
When you read this you'll be well on your way
And please write soon
So I know that you have gotten home safe
Please don't forget me

We'll shatter the silence to tell you we won't last long
If this canopy crashes down, crushing us
That's the only way to break this apart
That's the only way to break this apart

How, I worked hearts molded in mach? to some mended
Way of beating before we behold them break and fold
Painting pictures that will never fade, still they crack

Clutched, at the crushing in
Our chests dizzy we'll see stars dazzle like glass
Shards sparkle shatter, violence in destroyed frames
Painting pictures that will never fade, still they crack

And if the sheltering sky
Will slip to sever us
We'll receive it

We will reap it
Always remember

How, I worked hearts molded in mach? to some
mended
Painting pictures that will never fade, still they crack

Clutched, at the crushing in
Our chests dizzy we'll see stars dazzle like glass
Shards sparkle shatter, violence in destroyed frames
Painting pictures that will never fade, still they crack

We'll shatter the silence...
