

Anathema "Release"

Seeing is believing but I don't want to know
Walk on through the wasteland, I just can't let go
Face down I just break down when I see you cry
All the time

Hold on please
(Behind those gray and lonely eyes)
Hold on to me
(Unforgotten by time)

Tempt fate, release
(Reality is dawning)
Escape

Someone now is screaming as the flames fly high
Think now that we're lost here and we don't know why
Face down I just break down when I see you cry
All the time

Hold on please
(Behind those gray and lonely eyes)
Hold on to me
(Unforgotten by time)

Tempt fate, release
(Reality is dawning)
Escape
(Spirit is awakening)

Hold on please
(Somewhere in the hurricane)
Hold on to me
(Hope is waiting)

Temp fate, release
(Crying in the distance)
Escape
(Crying in the distance)
(Calling out your name)
