I can hear the train, it's coming,
And you will know that I'm still loving,
You know you meant everything to me,
Why did they take you away from me?

[chorus]
You are something to die for,
My light in my last evenfall.
You are something to fight for,
To get you back, I will start a war.

Now I see the lights, it's coming,
And I can hear that they are calling,
They'll bring me up, to meet you,
I'm doing this because I love you.

[chorus]
