In this warm lonely summer afternoon
Here I'm sitting on the backyard of my house

I'm thinking of you wondering you are here
I want you be to here!

It's been already 6 months since I left you
10.000 miles away...
Still I remembered the time you drove me
And say goodbye with smile...
Now I'm here all alone far away from you
This whole world seems so incomplete without you...

I'm thinking of you wondering you are here
I want you to be here!
