Who Knows Who Cares

Verse 1

Don't say it's a lie
Just 'cause you can't see why:
All love isn't put on display.
You want to believe
Every heart on each sleeve,
But not everyone shows it that way!

Verse 2

The heart is a place
Of mysterious grace:
Dreams grow in the shade of despair.
Who counts all the tears
That will never be heard?
Who measures the smiles
Never shared?

Who knows who cares?
