Check it
Check it friend
Layin' it down with my man Steve
Lay it down, lay it down

And I don't know what's going on (She's paging me, she's calling me)
I just called to see what's wrong
(She's telling me, she's feeling me)
And she said, I really, really turn her on
And she can't wait to get me all alone
Baby, when you're not home, yeah, yeah

I can't believe the things she said to me
Telling me she's feeling very freaky
And I don't understand
When she knows that I'm her girlfriend's man

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said, she'd rather have me all to herself)
Baby, check your friend
She's out to steal your man
(But I could never do my baby like that)

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said she'd rather have me all to herself)
Baby, check your friend
She's out to steal your man
(But I could never do my baby like that)

Oh, listen now
She saying we were meant to be
(She's trying to get to ruin me)
And why is she trying to player hate my baby
(Well, I won't give a piece of me)
She had the nerve to tell me
That she had to get with me

She don't give a damn about you, no
I guess she really doesn't know me
Now I'm blowing up her spot
And this game is getting hotter

I can't believe the things she said to me
She's telling me she's feeling very freaky
And I don't understand
When she knows that I'm her girlfriend's man

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said, she'd rather have me all to herself)
Baby, check your friend
She's out to steal your man
(But I could never do my baby like that)

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said, she'd rather have me all to herself)
Baby, check your friend
She's out to steal your man
(But I could never do my baby like that)

You share with her everything between you and I, oh
yeah, oh
And never shoulda told her how I do you at night, yeah, oh
You can't imagine all the things she offered me
Her plan was so secure, get into her bedroom door
And baby I can't take it no more

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said, she'd rather have me all to herself)
Baby, check your friend
She's out to steal your man
(But I could never do my baby like that)

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said, she'd rather have me all to herself)
Baby, check your friend
She's out to steal your man
(But I could never do my baby like that)

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
(She said, she'd rather have me all to herself)

Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
Baby, check your friend
She's trying to steal your man
