Hold on 'cause you're gonna get dizzy
Living in the world today
Round and round the lonely crowd
Is beginning to lose its way
Move fast if it's getting too busy
Never think you have to stay
Movin' on's the only way
To be living in the world today

When you wake up in the morning
Feelin' something's wrong
And the moon is still high in the sky
Now the world is changing
We can't just hang on
Everybody's lost the way
To be living in the world today

Hold on 'cause you're gonna get dizzy
Living in the world today
Round and round the lonely crowd
Is beginning to lose its way
Move fast if it's getting too busy
Never think you have to stay
Movin' on's the only way
To be living in the world today

Deep in the city people fade away
And never see the sunlight as night runs into day
Keep on keeping on though it's crazy
Living in the world today
Don't get caught up by the crowd
Or your spirit will fly away
Roll on with the wind where it blows you
Anywhere along the way
You won't find a better time
To be living in the world today
