I woke up yesterday morning
Somebody's yawning quite close to me
I close my eyes, am I dreaming?
But somebody's screaming it's me

Somebody gave me the sun in my hands
And the clouds in the sky for my bed
Somebody said what a feeling so grand
I should cry with the eyes in my head
(Ah ha)

Stars are baying at my heels
Now I know how Atlas feels
Got the whole world on my back
Now the only thing I lack
Is a Solid State Brain
(Solid State Brain)

Somebody gave me the sun in my hands
And the clouds in the sky for my bed
Somebody said what a feeling so grand
I should cry with the eyes in my head
(Ah ha)

Someone is eating my breakfast
Reading my paper and shining my shoes
I see the only solution
Is straighten my tie or I'll lose
(Ah ooh)

Somebody gave me the sun in my hands
And the clouds in the sky for my bed
Somebody said what a feeling so grand
I should cry with the eyes in my head
