There... somewhere...
There must be someone to be Far... some place...
There must be something for me
Time is fading and closing too fast to see

But dreams are forbidden to me
My hopes are crumble down to the sea
And people, they come
and deceive

There... somewhere...
There must be something for me
But dreams are forbidden to me
My hopes are crumble down to the sea

And people, they come
and deceive

Sun shine on me
light let me see
But dreams are forbidden to me
My hopes are crumble down to the sea

They come and deceive
The people deceive
They come to deceive.
