Please tell my home that I'm leaving
I won't be comin home tonight

I've had enough and in the city fight and I took a train and I won't be back this evening and she didn't expect it

She's going to have wait ohh have it get done
And you took my heart and you tore it apart Hey Ohh. I've have it done

And you, you are my lady I'm going to miss you maybe I'm going to miss you for sure

But you let me down and as much as it hurts to say this You're going to have to take it

Ohhh! What have you done?
you Took my heart and threw it and took it apart Say what have you done.
