Well, I'm sitting here honey waitng for the seeds to rest
Oh, my beautiful lady says
I'm going to do my best

Because, I know tomorrow is going to be a better day Because I bet tomorrow is going to be a brand new day

Cause I've been waiting so long come home help me be home
Don't you know what to say
Do you love me?

Oh a powerful breeze and a helpless thought, I wonder
When thunder strikes and an echo of mine to leave me
With a silent thought comes a women to deceive me

I've waited so long
With a feeling deep inside
Time, Time ago my mind

You're all excited but no one can hide it away.
Said my beautiful lady don't you want to come and stay Because I'll bet you tomorrow is going to be a brand new day.

I've been waiting so long

That's what I said, that's the beat I play.
