it must be love, my eyes are sworn our new life is born into a broken world i breathe in your breath 'til i forget all of the things i regret all of the times i overslept all of the sentiment i kept inside its easier to say your sorry the 2nd time with words so painful hearts are broke and time is suicide its easier to tear your heart out the 2nd time now that your painless this 2nd time with words so cold i saw your breath i thought of you as i bled to death i lay down and dreamed i dreamt of all the things i regret of all the times i overslept of all the sentiment i wept inside

my eyes a fountain for the tears that ran all night
easier tear your heart out the 2nd time ran...
