rundown drag
put my head in a bag
and breathe in

i'm nowhere now
u know where i been
...here

and the hours on the clock spin like your wheels tread on iceberg
...violently

over coffee
i swore u caught me
eavesdropping with my eyes caught my eyes
con my eyes
call my eyes

...in my eyes

sat on the stinger
put my head through the ringer and i'm coasting down the river drowning forgetting to breathe
i've got nowhere to leave and i am beat up badly
beating back
i am beat

i've got my coat on backwards like a night won
shining sage
