f/ Ali Vegas

Ya'll know I'm young and witty, only my guns is pretty

Got Ali(Rasul)running with me, ya'll can come and get me

Find me in the slums of fifties, gutter campaigns from Poughkeepsie that'll leave one in your kidney!

If you run against me, I've got killer flows, ain't no monkey-business in gorilla fros use music to heal a soul, all my young shorties fulfill your goals

Life is more then just the fastest cars & the illest cloths! Tim'lands and whites, linen with ice winning with dice, cinnamon wife blend with the trife!

repenting to Christ, vacating where the temperature's nice Penderin' twice, that's what I call: Living the Life..

Chorus:

Yo it's the same hood money guns bottles of Cane

We can take what tomorrow'll bring but as the days pass, our mottos'll change..

It's all one world, divided by bars and the chains, sorrow & pain

Follow the game gospels came with bullets and slugs took it to bloods of Abraham's crooks and them thugs Hookers in clubs, little girls cooking up drugs
Who am I to rearrange their outlooks of love?!

My footage on dubs is like Holy Books from above Saying Allah U Akbar, still shook from his grudge shook to be judged, balls of fire false desire crawling up higher until my laws retire

Yo, cutting no slacks, busting no caps We've learned to reevaluate and muscle our tracks my lungs'll collapse 'cause I keep cussin' on wax How many rappers do you know still hustling crack?

Chorus: Repeat

Now they're really gonna hate us! The Square and Ali Vegas

makin' papers. You can't escape the vapors

If the music doesn't work go back to stagin' capers

It ain't our fault they say it's what the devil made us

Whether mikes or skypagers, gats or crossfaders, the game's the same and it's played by all ages

Laced with raw flavas, make ya'll wanna taste it

Niggas throw your guns in the air, hoes get naked our motto. Pop bottles after we shake it

The lifestyles of young brothas tryin' to make it

Whips, exotic trips, and large bank statements,

It's yours and it's there to be taken
