An empty cup of coffee no cigarettes to smoke
And a dirty two room walking flat's a long way to my home

This life in New York City
Just ain't what I thought it'd be Loneliness and desperation are closing in on me
Loneliness and desperation are closing in on me

How lately get to thinking Bout the things I left back home
That healing country sunshine and a woman singing song
Then I turned back to the bottle I turned back to the pain
And every night I'll kneel and pray I'll see her face again
Every night I'll kneel and pray I'll see her face again

The sign on the highway says it's 30 miles to go Just as well 10,000 in this freezing rain and snow
But that's not gonna stop me
I know just where I'm bound And if you ever look for me you'll know where I'll be found
If you ever look for me you'll know where I'll be found
