(Verse)

Falling tears, broken pictures
Open wounds, you never listen
Hearts in pain, what we've given
What will it take for you to listen

I can't, I hate you
Tired, we both lose

(Chorus)

Let's call it even
We're just holding on
What's the reason
When there's nothing left
To believe in
I've had, you had
I've cried, you've cried but now
Let's call it even

(Verse)

I fall I jump again
What's done is done
I should've listened
My demands, my expectations of you
Don't fear I should've trusted you

Who's to blame with them things
Who's the victim here
White flag up, I give up
I surrender

(Chorus)

Let's call it even
We're just holding on
What's the reason
To believe in
I've had, you had
I've cried, you've cried but now
Let's call it even

(Bridge)

Tell me this is perfect
Tell me this is wrong
Say you feel the same way
And the love is gone

Never been so indecisive
I just need to know
Should I hang on
Or should I go

(Chorus) x2

Let's call it even
We're just holding on
What's the reason
To believe in
I've had, you had
I've cried, you've cried but now
Let's call it even
