Tell me all the things
I want to believe
Just twist the truth
Spread like a disease
It's fate or choice
You test our strength
We've got nothing to lose
Cuz it's too late

I've got nothing to lose
And now I'm coming back for you
You can't stop me cuz
I've got nothing to lose

We are the fallen
Picked up from crawling

I want to see you breakdown
Fall away and burn your crown
I wanna watch you bleed now
I wanna hear you scream!

I've got nothing to lose
And now I'm coming back for you
You can't stop me cuz
I've got nothing to lose

We are the fallen
Picked up from crawling
