I'll have you
To know
There is no reason
This anger
You show
Change with season
We face it all
We face it all

I'm finding
Myself watching, waiting
For something
Something to tear me
Away from
This life
Time is stretching me
So thin
I'm feel that were breaking away
From the path
Of simple thing
To explain

The hardest task
Flip the past
Far behind
Working through
Letting go
We're taking it away

We're drowning
Waiting for someone
To break this
Cycle of pain
We're unchanging
Never forgetting the sum
Of the life were taking

Breaking the picture's
And cutting the tie's
Dive and keep pounding
A little with lie's

Cover the pattern
That show's them the past
Mending what's broken
You know it wont last

Changes will show
The season's rolling on

I'll have you
To know
There is no reason
This anger
You show
Change with season
We face it all
We face it all

Breaking the picture's
And cutting the tie's
Dive and keep pounding
A little with lie's
That show's them the past
Mending what's broken
You know it wont last

Know it wont last
Know it wont last
Know it wont last
Know it wont last
