If I tried to say what you needed
Would you even hear me
No longer the words are spoken
That you're able to see
And I can't heal
What you're sending is killing me
And all this haunting fake emotion
Like a patient disease

If I could start this over
Rewind and burn the tape
The path you can't awaken
The words that never leave you
Voiceless

And every time you taste the unwanted
You can't stand at the see
You don't feel
What you're sending is killing me
And all this preaching is getting no where
It's like you want me to bleed

If I could start this over
Rewind and burn the tape
The path you can't awaken
The words that never leave you

I said
You know
Let it go
We're falling through the cracks
That isolate us everyday
And separate the
Silence, spoken
Voiceless, broken
Silence, spoken
Voiceless, broken

If I could start this over
Rewind and burn the tape
The path you can't awaken

The words that never leave you
Voiceless
Voiceless
