I never knew
I never saw the sadness in your eyes (In your eyes)
Believe me when I say that
Holding on has never been so hard (Never be so hard)

So just open your eyes and seek the love that surrounds you
Now just open your mind and take my word I still love
you

I never saw this side of you
The darkness setting in
I never saw this side of you
The darkness setting in

So take my hand and hold on tight
We'll make it through we'll be alright
I'll be your way, your path, your light
We'll make it through we'll be alright

We both know this isn't getting any easier for you or me
We both know this isn't getting any easier for you or
me
For you or me

Is this the price I pay to keep you alive
To keep you alive

I never knew
I never saw the sadness in your eyes (In your eyes)
Believe me when I say that
Holding on has never been so hard (Never be so hard)

I never knew
Just open your eyes and seek the love that surrounds
you
Now just open your mind and take my word I still love
you

So take my hand and hold on tight

We'll make it through we'll be alright
I'll be your way, your path, your light
We'll make it through we'll be alright

So take my hand and hold on tight
We'll make it through we'll be alright
I'll be your way, your path, your light
We'll make it through we'll be alright

So keep your vision focused
Keep the right mind set
Your doubts will lead us to the end

So keep your vision focused
Keep the right mind set
Your doubts will lead us to the end
