You know it's funny how you go from being a no-show somebody everybody knows She's on the scene and in the mix and everyone walks in her shadow
They all wish they could be like her
When she makes her move it's all over
She's a shotgun blast
Turn your head so fast
You won't even see her take you down
She's not meant to last fifteen minutes past
The backfire leaves you on the ground
I saw her coming and I only had myself to blame she took everything
All I wanted was a chance to play this game and add a star to my name They all want a piece of her
When she makes her move it's all over
She's a shotgun blast

Turn your head so fast
You won't even see her take you down
She's not meant to last
fifteen minutes past
The backfire leaves you on the ground
Everyone wants her Everyone needs their fix of her Created a monster
She doesn't even know
She's a shotgun blast
Turn your head so fast
You won't even see her take you down
fifteen minutes past
The backfire leaves you on the ground
