Hello darlin'

Whats on your mind

for tonight

You're giving me clues

with your eyes

Whats your story

are you alone

All the time

At least tonight I'll make you mine

You've got me blown away

with your body

I'm so amazed

by how you grind

and tonight I feel like it's something real

So what do you say

the night away

The night away

Let's relocate

Let's take a ride

It's not that far

A private place under the sky

with an audience of stars I'll give you much more than you need and all you want Get it before the night is gone
You've got me blown away
with your body
I'm so amazed
by how you grind
and tonight I feel like it's something real
So what do you say
the night away
The night away
Don't let this moonlight go to waste
Let's celebrate So now it's on and I have waited for this moment for so long You've got me blown away
with your body
I'm so amazed
by how you grind
and tonight I feel like it's something real
So what do you say
the night away
The night away
