[Intro]

Baby girl, I just wanna let you know
I'll give you the whole wide world
Because I love you so
I'll put Diamonds on your neck
Di, Diamonds on your necklace
Diamonds on your neck
Di, Diamonds on your necklace

[Verse 1]

Girl theres so many things in this world I know
But the cars and the clothes they dont matter no (No)
Cos everytime I see you take my breath away
And it doesnt matter you can be
A million miles away, your still my Diamond babe
I can be across the world, your still my Diamond girl
But I know everywhere I go, your the one my heart holds
Yeah I say: if you ever felt the way im feeling
Then you'll know, it will show, its for real yeah
If you ever felt the way im feeling
Then you'll know, then you'll know... then you'll know

Baby girl, I just wanna let you know
I'll give you the whole world wide world
Because I love you so
I'll put Diamonds on your neck
Di, Diamonds on your necklace
Diamonds on your neck
Di, di, di, Diamonds on your necklace
Baby girl, because I love you so
Imma give you the whole wide world
I just wanna let you know
I'll put Diamonds on your neck
Di, di, Diamonds on your necklace
Diamonds on your neck
Di, di, di, Diamonds on your necklace

But outta all of the girls your the one for me

Its the greatest love of all, and you keep it standing tall
And you know its plain to see, you feel the same 'bout
