She lies candles beside the bed were i lay on She slowly unbuckles her scirt She knows what's turn me on

But tonight, all the caveman wispers
they have crossed the line
how slow and (dangling row)
she can broose you till you die

'Cause I bend over to touch me, no shes giving me a smile shes laying down on the bed, and I...
Laying by her side

But tonight, all the caveman wispers
they have crossed the line
how slow and (dangling(dazzling) row)
she can broose you till you die

All that's left is just a lost love
Now my own walls
come tumbling down

Yeah, live can be no joke my love,
Now my own walls
come tumbling down

It's dark and she's silently searches her scirt that's on the floor
