In the middle of the side of the road
I'm a cynical baby
So your god fell in love with the war
well he's only your god
I'm the first male lesbian
I feel less being jaded
The gayest straight boy
That you'll ever meet
And I meet everyone only not in the flesh

Easy hopeless admiration of
A hollywood home
We're living in a hollywood home
We're living in a hollywood hole
We're leaving when we want To go home

Heads tied to a rolling sculpture
Limp feet proceed to hold me up

Now that you've come home
