Laying lost and wounded
Just myself to blame
Have no laughing
Being hand-fed pain

Head's a crying wasteland
Filled with shame
Cried for help before and
Nobody came

His father beats him
No hesitation
Face left dripping
In humiliation

Head's a crying wasteland
Filled with shame
Cried for help before and
Nobody came
Ooh
Ooh

As he lies wounded
His father turns to claim
A frozen statue
Can't walk away

Head's a crying wasteland
Filled with shame
Cried for help before and
Nobody came

To see what
I can lose again
For being the victim

Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
