Each minute passes by I just think of you Only try to figure what my heart should do Look into your eyes only makes me smile
You fill me up with feelings, fact I can't deny

I dream of times we could spend and share
I feel your touch so soft and warm I can't explain Like Romeo told Juliet I want to spend all my life

I need your love
I need your love baby
I need your lovin' arms wrapped around me every night
- I need
your love

Emotions going wild cravin' your soft kiss Let me manifest myself into your web
All I wanna do is feel your body all over mine

I need your love
I need your love - baby
I need your lovin' arms wrapped around me every night
- I need

hold you tight, all my life, through the good and bad times - yeah that's right

As long as the sun shines from the heavens above I'm gonna feel the sheer exciting rush flow through my blood Like jack told Jill going up the hill "I'll hold your hand all your life, that's no lie"

I need your love
I need your love baby
I need your loving arms wrapped around me every night-

I need your love - I need your love

I need your luv, I need your luv, I'm the desire that beats your heart
I'm what your dream your memories gonna give you everything you need - I'll be your luv
