(Debbie Hupp/Bob Morrison)

Throw me a coat baby - Hell has frozen over - maybe
That isn't you I'm seein' standin' at my door What's that you sayin' honey? - You never should have done it
You're back and asking me to try it once more

Oh well - Ain't that just too bad
Oh well - You learned too late
That when it comes to love
You left the best you ever had oh wellâ€¦

You said you didn't need me - You crossed the line believe me
You better go befo' you cause a big fuss
Your boots were meant for walkin' - So what's the sense of talkin'
Your time is passed there ain't no future for us

Oh well - Ain't that just too bad
Oh well - You learned too late
That when it comes to love
You left the best you ever had oh wellâ€¦

Easy come and easy go - that's what you said to me
Oh well who knew - I'd be giving you Back a piece or two of your philosophy - Oh wellâ€¦

Oh well too bad too sad - that's rough oh well
Oh well that's life bad luck so tough oh well
You're S.O.L.
