Here I am,
Hanging from your sleeve
I cut my own thread, but it's not up to me
'Cuz you've got your tongue all tangled up
When little lies are not enough,
You just prosecute me,
Tell me my crime

CHORUS

Just take a side,
I'm tired of guessing
Where you will go
When all our time is gone
You pushed me aside,
Who would have guessed it?
When it comes to love,
You always change your mind

Am I just another thinning string?
Torn and tugging at the seams
When I'm worn out,
You pull me apart

CHORUS

Will you tell me who you're running from?
It's not me you're scared of
But if you find it in yourself to decide,
The decision is yours,
I already made mine

Here I am,
Hanging from your sleeve
I cut my own thread,
But you just
Pull me apart
