Begging to find an escape
From all the circles I've been spinning for them
It's time to face the past,
And cast away all fear and
Find the answers I've sought,
It has to start here

CHORUS

So tell me,
Why have you let it come to this?
Why, when it's so obvious?
I'm asking, why is this a fight I lose?
Just tell me, with my heart out in front of you,
How could you refuse?

Have I not done
Everything you wished?
I'm wondering if it even makes a difference
Revolve around your hands
In a never-ending spin
To solve the madness I am in,
That never seems to end

CHORUS

You've got me spinning 'round
You've got me spinning 'round
You've got me spinning 'round

CHORUS
