Love, love is the best of all my life
All that I can delight
And open your eyes if can fly

Love is coming down on my dreams
Just like a memory
Now your breath is standing by me

Remember, surrender
When I look into your eyes
It's fine love me tender
Don't lose yourself tonight

Why I've been waiting so long?
Show me your light in the storm

Love, love is a feeling in the air
Looking inside again
Find all what you need everywhere

Love, love is the game in your hands
If you can understand
When you get a time to romance

Remember, surrender
When I look into your eyes
It's fine love me tender
Don't lose yourself tonight

Why I've been waiting so long?
Show me your light in the storm

Why I've been waiting so long?
Show me your light in the storm
