It was you
I never wanted to know the truth
To believe it was always you
Or something that you could even do

I'm never gonna be the same
Thank him for me
I'm never gonna feel the same
And now I can't breath
All I ever feel is pain
I fell on my face
Nothing's ever gonna be the same in my life
'Cause sometimes

Love just isn't strong enough
You're lying next to me
But your heart beats for someone else
You're nothing without us
I'm hoping that one day you'll finally see
There's no one else

I feel like I've been a fool
'Cause there's nothing like being used
I guess sometimes people change
But I stay true

I'm never gonna be the same
Thank him for me
I'm never gonna feel the same
And now I can't breath
All I ever feel is pain
I fell on my face
Nothing's ever gonna be the same in my life
'Cause sometimes

Love just isn't strong enough
You're lying next to me
But your heart beats for someone else
You're nothing without us
I'm hoping that one day you'll finally see
There's no one else

(You're holding someone)
I feel I'm getting better
I can nearly break away
Break away from you

I feel I'm getting better
I can nearly break away
Break away this

Love just isn't strong enough
You're lying next to me
But your heart beats for someone else
You're nothing without us
I'm hoping that one day you'll finally see
There's no one else

Love just isn't strong enough
Your lying next to me
But your heart beats for someone else
You're nothing without us
I'm hoping that one day you'll finally see
There's no one else
