Everyday-life has got you down
You've got nowhere to go
It seems like... You've got a little dull on the side there
Well I know someplace you could go
Leave that nasty feeling aside
It seems like a nice place...
To get away

I'm on the way
To a place where dreams come true
But there's a price to pay
Uh, it's coming to get you too

'Cuz I'm waiting for the fight
Waiting for the fight
I'm waiting for the fight
Waiting for the fight

Now that you're there
It managed to consume you
You said you weren't aware
But now you're just one more

And I'm waiting for the fight
Waiting for the fight
I'm waiting for the fight
Waiting for the fight

I'm waiting
Waiting on you
Bring it on

And I'm waiting for the fight!
