"One Way Mule"

Let my spirit ride on a one way mule
Blistered skin in a cold hearted pool
Distant emotion hides a concrete wall
Naked and anchored I'll climb right back
To you

And love me for my mind, coz I'm a dangerous heart
When I've got time to kill I'm coming back to you

Defect memories in a cage by my bed
Viscid dreams stick to holes in my head
But a patient career of sleep in a Sunday dress
Rides my wake

And love me for my mind, coz I'm a dangerous heart
When I've got time to kill I'm coming back to you

I'll stake out just to find
The knife in a dangerous heart
When I've got time to kill I'm coming back for you

And love me for my mind, coz I'm a dangerous heart
When I've got time to kill I'm coming back for you

I'll stake out just to find
The knife in a dangerous heart
When I've got time to kill I'm coming back to you
