oh yeah yeah

I watched you talking to your lover
I saw the tears in your eyes start to flow (start to flow)
You said you thought it was forever
What kind of fool could ever let you go?

But I know you still care
(Though your heart is broken)
And I'll be waiting there

(Chorus)
When your world's falling down
And your friends can't be found (ah-ah-ah)
And loves got you down on bended knees (love is all you need)
Close your eyes, say a prayer
Call my name, I'll be there (ah-ah-ah)
You can count on me

Go on and cry, it's only human
Just let me be the one to help you through oh-oh
I've always loved you from afar
Always reaching for that star that shines on you

So let me feel your pain
(Let the truth be spoken)
Cause you will love again

(Chorus)
When your world's falling down
And your friends can't be found (ah-ah-ah)
And loves got you down on bended knees (love is all
you need)
Close your eyes, say a prayer
Call my name, I'll be there (ah-ah-ah)
You can count on me

I'll always be there for you
Baby...Oh-oh woah-oh...
Well I know you still care (though your heart is broken)

But I'll be waiting there

(Chorus)

When your world's falling down

And your friends can't be found (ah-ah-ah)

And loves got you down on bended knees (love is all you need)

Close your eyes, say a prayer

Call my name, I'll be there (ah-ah-ah)

You can count on me

Your world's falling down (chris: Oh yeah...)

And your friends can't be found (ah-ah-ah) (chris: you can count on me baby)

And loves got you down on bended knees (love is all you need) (chris: Woh-oh-oh...)

Close your eyes, say a prayer (chris: say a prayer)

Call my name, I'll be there (ah-ah-ah) (chris: 'cause I will be there)

You can count oh-oh-oh on me

I'll always be there for ya, baby

You can count on me

Ooh ooh...

Yeah Yeah
