To town you were
And left you with a sound
Of spoilt good-nights
Replacing alibis

How could they never notice
What they planted in your space
See you laughing in our picture
But I know it's out of frame

I bet he cried
But you made it out alive
And I'm so proud
That you're in my hands now

If we grew up together
You will find it's not the same
I wanna jump inside our picture
Show you what you gave

If we stay long enough
We can play with bloody mary
Staring into the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we stay long enough
We can play with bloody mary
She'll chase us though the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we stay

I'll never let them get closer
I'll shower you with any blame
Now we dance in our own picture
Where the rules have changed

If we stay long enough
We can play with bloody mary
Staring into the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we stay long enough
We can play with bloody mary
She'll chase us though the dark
Activate our nerve endings

If we stay
