I lay dreamin'
in my bed
I lay searchin'
in my head

Where have I gone, where will I be through the night, I think

If I could fly,
I would not touch the sky
If I could fly,
I would realize,

What has this world come to,
when will the sadness end, the world, was so great back then without the crazy insane

If I could fly,
I would not touch the sky---
If I could fly,
I would realize,

What the world feels like now,
what do we breathe,
why are we so unhealthy,
what is the disease?

If I could fly
I would realize that I cannot worry anymore
we live life as it flows

What comes at us,
no one knows

If I could fly,
I would not touch the sky,
If I could fly,

I would realize,

If I could fly,
I would not touch the sky,
If could fly
I would realize

I would realize, realize
