I used to work on a computer
Which watched as I age
Taunted by the life I led
I sat submerged in rage
So I left to find my passion
It only took one day
I let these 88 keys
Blow my blues away

Now Iâ€™ve seen the girls of Rio
And Iâ€™ve tasted their delights
Iâ€™ve sang the blues in Memphis
And Iâ€™ve got in drunken fights
Iâ€™ve been a hundred places
Iâ€™ll go a hundred more
No I donâ€™t want to settle down
I want to explore

Oh Iâ€™ve always been a wild horse
Who nobody could tame
They tried to tie me up
In big padlocks and chains
But I was born free
And I wonâ€™t be held down
I let the speed of the breeze
Blow me from town to town

Iâ€™ve played to Taiwanese and Spanish
Italian and Thai
Iâ€™ve played the slopes of France
And the depths of Uruguay
Yeah the road gets rocky
Ah but thatâ€™s okay
I let these 88 keys
Blow my blues
Blow my blues
Blow my blues away
