[Verse 1]

I've been waiting for your cell to ring anytime now
Could've gon' a lookin' but instead I'm sitting here
Maybe I'm not to certain on what I need
But a man like me gotta suceed
And baby let me tell you something

[Chorus]

I could be the one to land on my shoes
I could be the one to break all the records
I could be the one to invent a time machine
I could be the one to set you free
I really need something in my life to do
I could be the one to get the sun to shine
I could be the one to bake a big cake
I could be the one to ride the ferris wheel
I could be the one to face my fears
I really need something in my life to do

[Verse 2]

You've been looking but never find whatcha' need
And then one day it pops out suddenly
Its me holdin' ya in ya arms all together
And we look good, lets keep it this way

[Chorus]

I could be the one to land on my shoes
I could be the one to break all the records
I could be the one to invent a time machine
I could be the one to set you free
I really need something in my life to do
I could be the one to get the sun to shine
I could be the one to bake a big cake
I could be the one to ride the ferris wheel
I could be the one to face my fears
I really need something in my life to do

[Verse 3]

I know your probably thinkin
"Watcha talkin bout?!"
But baby if I aint got nothin

Then whats it without you?

[Chorus]

I could be the one to land on my shoes
I could be the one to break all the records
I could be the one to invent a time machine
I could be the one to set you free
I really need something in my life to do
I could be the one to get the sun to shine
I could be the one to bake a big cake
I could be the one to ride the ferris wheel
I could be the one to face my fears
I really need something in my life to do

I could be the one to land on my shoes
I could be the one to break all the records
I could be the one to invent a time machine
I could be the one to set you free
I really need something in my life to do
I could be the one to get the sun to shine
I could be the one to bake a big cake
I could be the one to ride the ferris wheel
I could be the one to face my fears
I really need something in my life to do
