[Chorus]

we want to have a party tonight so let's party all the time or it will suck lime
and it will be a rocking time
that's just mine
so it will be on the line
let's go with mine
so let's party all the time

[Verse 1]

la la la la la la [x4] do you want a party, well let's rock like a smarty it will be the future tomorrow, so let's party....., walk the party let's go the party [x3]
have you ever been derailed? well would you have the time of your life, if you had a party?
let's buy some party poppers and get some choppers, what a whopper!!!!
let's go to the waterpark and have some fun together

[Bridge] [The Script]

let's go and play dancing daffodils and musical chairs let's go across the sauce department so that we can find the boss and of course buy some sauce have you got a euphoria feeling inside you? and nothing's gonna ever stop the party you know uh, she likes to dance she likes to drink she's got that someting that makes me weak she likes to watch she likes to tease she likes them girls that are just like me knows how to keep 'em watching they can turn across the bar
she flirtes with every face she meets on the floor

[Chorus]

we want to have a party tonight
so let's party all the time

so let's party all the time

[Pre-chorus]

this week we're going to Turkey and we will have some jerky we will also have nachos for the party yeah Marty can you buy those snacks for supper so that we can party all the time party all the time

[Beat break]

[Verse 2]

well let's do it tonight and kiss my ass, get a less education and more happiness you gonna swim and your going to dive 3d sensations, do you have what it takes just rock it oh, rock it oh, rock it oh, rock it oh!!!! we also don't need a tool for school anymore
