I think I love my girlfriend
I might have been stupid when
I told her we may not work
Never knew how much that hurt

And I didn't really think it out
It was too many girls around
My ego was bizurk!
Didn't catch that red alert!

I didn't even try and make things work... no
I'm sorry cause you feel so bad
My hearts so sad that I'm here without you
I think I love my girlfriend
No one could ever take her place

I was in a silly place
Too many friends playin' games
Thought it made me cool!
Hangin' out with all my dudes

And one thing that I didn't mention
I didn't give enough attention
And now I'm like tha fool!
What else am I suppose to do
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle

And girl you know!
I always loved you so much!
I got so caught up on too much of nothin'!
Bein' young I always wanted for us to still be in love
Even after we grew up baby!

And after thinkin' bout tha fun times that we spent
What I know now I wish I knew back then... because!

I was in a silly place
Too many friends playin' games
Thought it made me cool!
Hangin' out with all my dudes

And one thing that I didn't mention
I didn't give enough attention
And now I'm like tha fool!
What else am I suppose to do
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle

I think I love my girlfriend
I might have been stupid when
I told her we may not work
Never knew how much that hurt

I was in a silly place
Too many friends playin' games
Thought it made me cool!
Hangin' out with all my dudes

And one thing that I didn't mention
I didn't give enough attention
And now I'm like tha fool!
What else am I suppose to do
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
Rosebelle, Rosebelle
