[Chorus]

My eyes are weary of you before me
I see for their sake, the light of daybreak
It shines upon me, this day we'd all see
No reason ever was given
No reason ever was given

Two sides of recoil, this moment's glory
A failed reminder of a broken story
My vague emotions one day will find
No reason ever was given
No reason ever was given

[Verse 1]

Senses, expenses, sentences, fences
How was I ever so naive
That I could never see
What was in front of me I grew up and you let me down
That's when I realized I didn't need
Your kind around me I'm not letting myself change for you
Your change is my demise I'm not letting myself change for you
Please try and understand
You stole what we gave you for free
I'm taking back all my sins I'm not letting you in I'm not letting you in I'm not letting you in I'm not letting you in
How did you ever get passed
My senses of sight, smell, taste, feel
And what endeavors and gestured blessings
Made you believe that you could
Get this over on me
But wait you didn't think
About the pressure
Understand understand
The lecture take heed
You're walking on bad land
You better check yourself
Before your wreck yourself man I'm not second place
To a paycheck man

[Chorus]

My eyes are weary of you before me
I see for their sake, the light of daybreak
It shines upon me, this day we'd all see
No reason ever was given
No reason ever was given

Two sides of recoil, this moment's glory
A failed reminder of a broken story
My vague emotions one day will find
No reason ever was given

[Verse 2]

You silly rabbit turning tricks I give you no respect
I don't understand the joy
You get from pretending
That you are the man
That you are the man I see the struggles never ending
On my time you're wasting
And you're spending
On rewriting the original silly criminal
Prepare for the lesson
You wish you learned
Back in school you fool
Well here's the golden rule
You stool I sit
Well you ain't biting this
My friend the end is
What I put to this
The question everybody wanders
This is your kid
This is your kid
Ha you wish
You can't wonder why
Damn we're too fly for you
The bottom of my shoe
These are my words
That you heard
You came up with this I never heard
Something so obvious I thought we were close
Now I understand that we

[Chorus]

My eyes are weary of you before me
It shines upon me, this day we'd all see
No reason ever was given

Two sides of recoil, this moment's glory
My vague emotions one day will find
No reason ever was given

My eyes are weary of you before me
It shines upon me, this day we'd all see
No reason ever was given

Two sides of recoil, this moment's glory
My vague emotions one day will find
