[Verse 1]

You seem to be in a dizzy spin, And you can't work it out
You can't explain the mood you're in, You're stumbling about
But it's the same thing happening to you, As happened to me
You've got no time, for anyone, Even your friends get in the way
But you won't take any good advice, Or listen to what I say
Because it don't just happen to you, It happens to everyone

[Chorus]

When love takes over, yeah you will feel much better
You know you'll be much happier
When love takes over yeah
Cause something's here tonight

[Verse 2]

Saw a psychic in LA, Was just the other day
And she told me what I knew was true, She told me that I've never gotten over you
She said that if I called you, You'd just turn your back and walk away, ooh
Look what love can do, What am I to say
I wonder if I called you, Would you make me pay for my mistake, ooh
Look what love can do, Is it now too late?

[Chorus]

When love takes over, yeah you will feel much better
You know you'll be much happier
When love takes over yeah
Cause something's here tonight

Ahhhhhhhh, You'll probably love me all the time
Ahhhhhhhh, You'll probably date me at the waterfall
When will love take over?
When will love take over?

When will love take over?
When will love take over?
When will love take over?
When will love take over?
When will love take over?
When will love take over?
Over, over, over, over, over, over, over, over, over

[Chorus]

When love takes over, yeah you will feel much better
You know you'll be much happier
When love takes over yeah
Cause something's here tonight
