[Ke$ha]

I was childish and unfair
To you, my only friend
I regret, but now it's too late
I can't show you any more
The things I've learned from you
Cause life just took you away
You broke my heart
You promised you never would leave me all alone waiting by the phone
For your call to me
I gave you my everything
As perfect as two could be
Now I just can't see, it was you and me
Wondering where we'd gone

[Chorus]

Poetic phrases come to mind
Tell me why am I the one
Whenever I find injustice being done
Tell me why am I the one
And I wonder, what am I gonna do
Tell me why am I the one
What can one do except to be one
Tell me why am I the one

[Sryan]

I took a chance
And you promised me romance
Never thought I'd be, feeling lost and weak, what's come over me
So now that you're gone (now that you're gone)
Though it's hard to move on, time to say goodbye, there's no one more try
Yeah, we're set and done
Can you tell me why you think that I won't get over you There's nothing holding me back from finding somebody new
One is the loneliest number that you'll ever do
Two can be as bad as one
It's the loneliest number since the number one

I go through phases when I realize
It wouldn't be wise to try and bring it down
And I wonder, what am I gonna do
What should one do except just be around

[Chorus]
Poetic phrases come to mind
Tell me why am I the one
Whenever I find injustice being done
Tell me why am I the one
And I wonder, what am I gonna do
Tell me why am I the one
What can one do except to be one
Tell me why am I the one

[Ke$ha]
Open your heart and let the love come shining through
And you will do what you need to do
To know just where the other you is coming from
It just amazes me that I can be Part of the energy it takes to serve each other
And I wonder what am I gonna do

[Chorus]
Poetic phrases come to mind
Tell me why am I the one
Whenever I find injustice being done
Tell me why am I the one
And I wonder, what am I gonna do
Tell me why am I the one
What can one do except to be one
Tell me why am I the one

Poetic phrases come to mind
Tell me why am I the one
Whenever I find injustice being done
Tell me why am I the one
And I wonder, what am I gonna do
Tell me why am I the one
What can one do except to be one
Tell me why am I the one
